

Jake Beattie

Chief Executive Officer, Northwest Maritime Center

Northwest Maritime Center // Update 2023

501 c-3 non-profit

2023 budget

$9.3 M

45% earned

55% contributed

100,000 annual visitors

3,000+ students

60 Perm. employees

140+ peak season

1,500+ Volunteers

48° NORTH

SEVENTY
48

“Because the sea is the most powerful teacher we
know.”

“Because the sea is the most powerful teacher we
know.”

- Connect people with the sea.
- Keep our community connected with maritime trades and traditions
 - “Keep the Port in Port Townsend”
 - 13,000 years of maritime tradition
- Create opportunity for our community
 - “Center of gravity”

Events Adventure Education

Events Adventure Education

Events

Adventure
Education

Events
Adventure
Education

SEVENTY 48

Events
Adventure
Education

Stay and Learn

© WoodenBoat Magazine

Events
Adventure
Education

Events
Adventure
Education

Events
Adventure
Education

Community

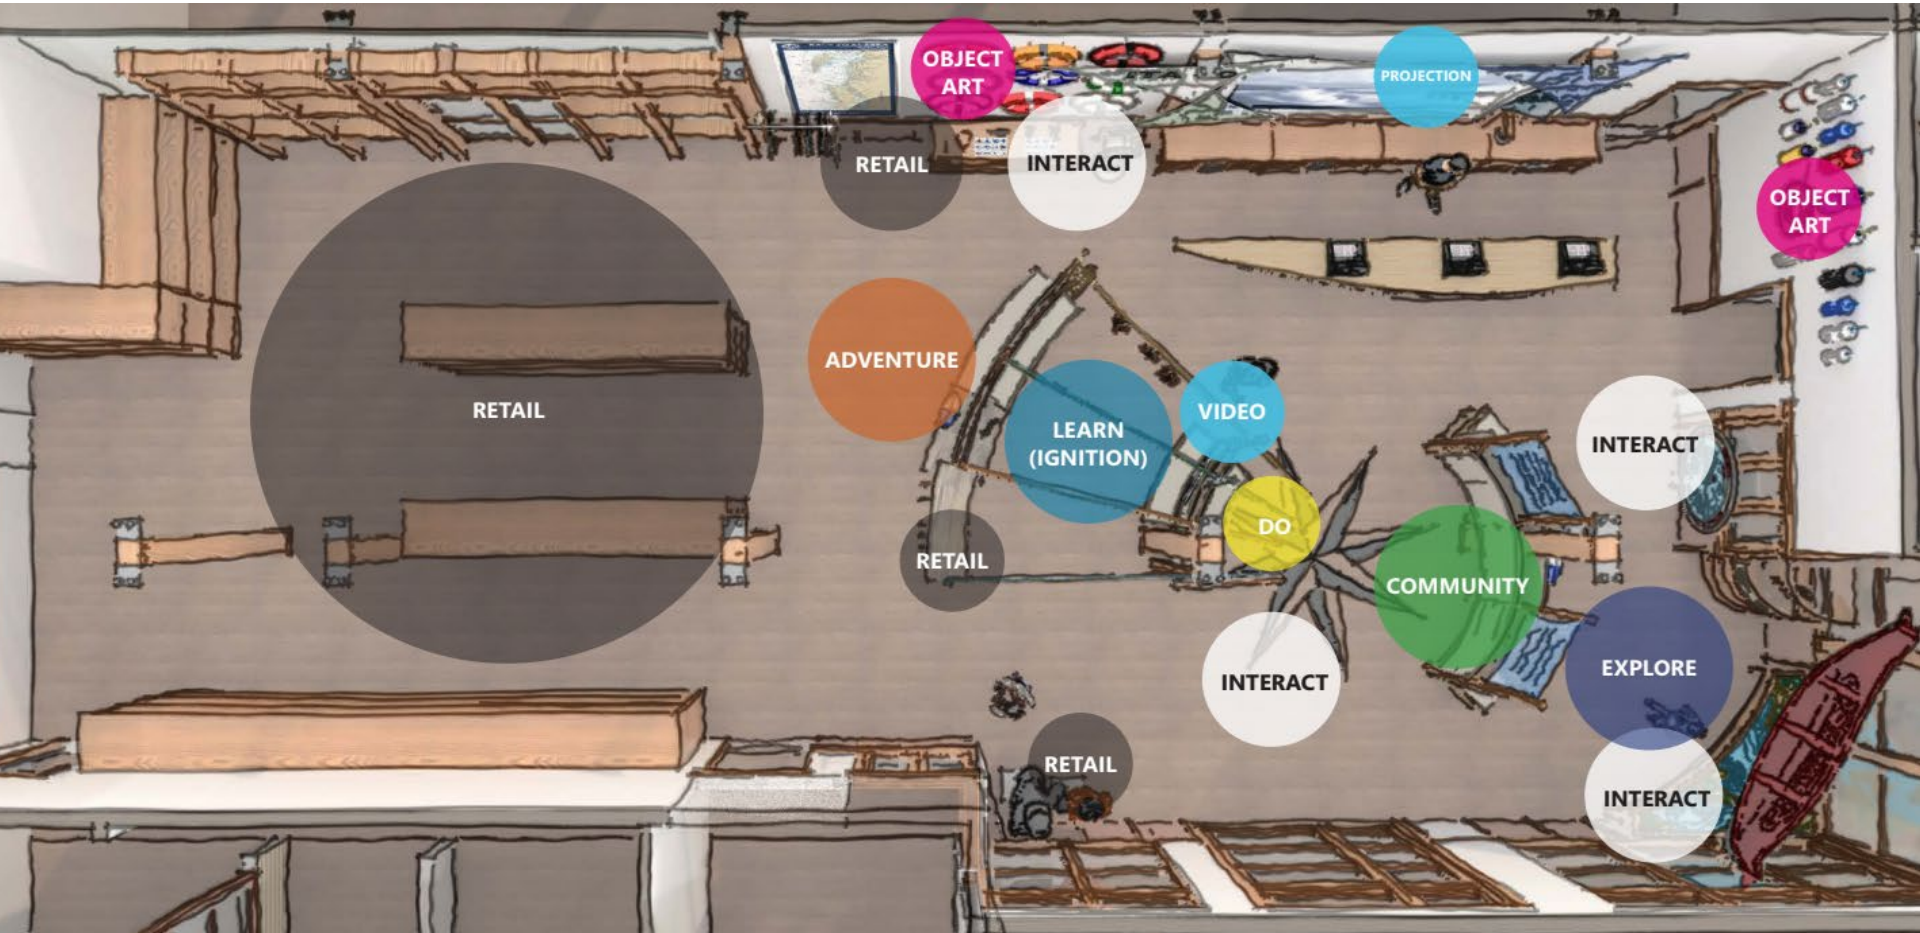

Campus expansion

Campus expansion

Admiral Jack - floating classroom, community access

Questions?

MARITIME HIGH SCHOOL

©Jeremy Johnson

- Public high school
- Currently 80+ students, growing to 400-450
- Campus is near SeaTac, Students from Olympia to Edmonds
- Diploma + industry certificates
- Project based, industry informed
- Equity is a cornerstone